Sea City Museum - Friday 30th April 2021

Dear parents

We are sad to announce that, given the current guidance, we have had to cancel our trip to the Sea City Museum. We had been increasingly excited about the forthcoming visit and had hoped that restrictions would have lifted in time, unfortunately museums are to remain closed to visitors until at least mid May. All is not lost, however, as we are happy to announce that the museum can come to us, albeit virtually!

Sea City are able to provide a virtual experience where the children will be able to participate in a workshop which will mirror many of the activities they would have accessed had we visited in person. They will also learn from the staff who will share their wealth of expert knowledge on the Titanic. This is a fantastic opportunity which will support the curriculum learning for that half term.

The workshop will include the following:

- True and false activity
- Mystery objects from the Titanic, inviting students to guess what objects are
- Storytelling about a number of people who were involved in the Titanic story
- Morse code activity
- Lifeboat activity decide upon who to place into a lifeboat
- Ask the Titanic Expert question time

The cost of this virtual adventure into the history of the Titanic is £3 per child

If you have not already done so, please make arrangements to pay this online via Scopay. If you are not registered for Scopay, please click here to request an online access code which will be emailed directly to you.

Your patience is appreciated whilst refunds are being processed.

We hope you and your child are as excited as we are about this virtual event and we can't wait to find out more about the Titanic.

Yours sincerely
